

Kelso Racecourse Spring Machinery Auction

Border Livestock Exchange Ltd held their Annual Spring Machinery Sale at Kelso Racecourse on Saturday 17th May.

A feature of the sale was the trademark and well known Uni Mogs from local contractor Jack Cook Contracting.

As usual for Kelso a Large turnout of potential buyers enjoyed the friendly atmosphere with bidding reaching a very respectful £14,700 and £2,600 for the 2 Uni Mogs from Cook Contracting. The same vendor also sold a mobile generator for £750 and a Kay Car Trailer for £280. Other prices included Kidd Topper £380, MF 70 Mower £200, Johnston Mower £600. A further 100 lots of small tools got the sale off to a good start where most items looked great value to purchasers.
